

COLLEGE FINANCIAL LITERACY TOOLKIT 2023

 The Northern California College Promise Coalition (NCCPC) is a coalition of 60 organizations that are committed to supporting multiply marginalized and underserved students in achieving their college, career, and life goals.

Check out the resources in this toolkit that can help you answer questions you may have! Questions like:

*I am making some of my very first decisions around money, what do I do?
I am experiencing new challenges, have other students gone through this too?*

I'm going to college but I need help, who can help me?

I received a private scholarship and something changed in my financial aid, what do I do?

I'm struggling to pay rent and eat everyday, where can I go? And can it be free and easy to get?

I'm thinking a lot about my future, where can I research careers and reflect on my goals?

Check out the resources provided to you
FOR FREE by:

CALIFORNIA
COLLEGES.edu
DISCOVER. PLAN. LAUNCH.

DecidED.
POWERED BY  Moneythink

AssistHub

COLLEGE FINANCIAL LITERACY TOOLKIT 2023

Click on the logo to access that resource!

I am making some of my very first decisions around money, what do I do?

Get access to a free portal where you can learn about financial aid through an online module.

Review and compare financial aid award letters, and decide based on college affordability and fit.

I am experiencing new challenges, have other students gone through this too?

Get access to peer-written content for topics ranging from Paying for College to College Success to Mental Health & Self Care.

I'm going to college but I need help, who can help me?

northern california
college promise coalition

Explore NCCPC's database of college promise, access, and success nonprofits that serve students like you in your area.

I received a private scholarship and something changed in my financial aid, what do I do?

#HANDSOFFMYSCHOLARSHIP

Scholarship displacement happens when a college or university reduces a student's financial aid after the student has received a private scholarship. Learn more about what you can do to seek support and how to report your financial issue.

I'm struggling to pay rent and eat everyday, where can I go?

Complete a 90-second form to get immediate access to public benefits like EITC, WIC, housing, food, insurance, and more.

I'm thinking a lot about my future, where can I research careers and reflect on my goals?

Use the portal to continue mapping out their career, exploring post-graduate programs, and for goal-setting.